Teaching Assistant position required for immediate start. Temporary in the first instance until August 2020.

Scale D (Point 5 – 6)

Term time, plus one week

8.30-12.30 daily

An opportunity has arisen for an experienced Teaching Assistant to join our support team, at our vibrant, creative and exciting school. We are looking for experience with children with ASD and/or issues around attachment.

This Teaching Assistant position is for experienced support staff who have energy, resilience, enthusiasm and are committed to an inclusive ethos.

The position will focus around supporting a small number of children with specific learning and behavioural difficulties.

We are seeking to employ people who can:

- Supervise and provide support for pupils with special educational needs, ensuring their safety and access to learning
- Excellent behaviour management skills
- Plan and deliver individual targeted support
- Develop positive and supportive relationships with children and adults
- Use their own initiative to support learning needs of children

We would also like this person to have:

- Experience of working with children in a Key Stage 1 classroom
- At least NVQ Level 3 or equivalent Teaching Assistant Qualification
- Very good literacy and numeracy skills
- Step on/step up experience would be desirable
- Experience of working directly with children who have Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Experience of managing an individual timetable for children with SEND
- Phonics training and experience

Avenue Junior School is a 4 form entry Junior School located in the 'Golden Triangle' area of Norwich. We have wonderfully enthusiastic children with a stimulating and creative curriculum with an excellent record of academic achievement. We are proud to have supportive staff, an active PTA and a strong Governing Body.
