

English

We will learn:

- to read texts with archaic language.
- to write Kennings.
- to write descriptively, thinking about settings, characters and plot.
- how to structure a narrative.
- about clauses and how to use subordinating and coordinating conjunctions

Science

We will learn:

- about the parts of the body and how they contribute to the digestive system.
- to identify types of teeth and understand their functions.
- construct and interpret food chains.

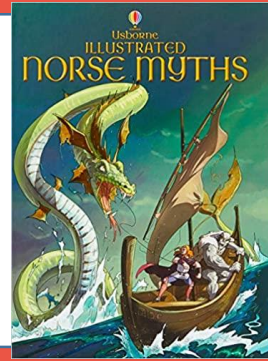

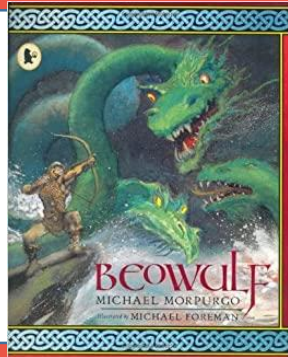

History

We will learn:

- about the chronology of Britain and Europe from the start of the Roman era to the Anglo-Saxons.
- who the Anglo-Saxons were, why they came to Britain and where they settled.
- who the Vikings were and about their struggle with the Anglo-Saxons for England.

How has Europe, Britain and East Anglia changed over time?

Texts:

Geography

We will learn:

- to interpret different maps and understand how they can provide useful information about our local history and geography.

DT

We will learn:

- To investigate and evaluate existing products; to develop different sewing skills and to design, make and evaluate a purse.

RE

We will learn:

- how religious groups contribute to society and culture in the local area and beyond.

Maths

We will learn:

- To add and subtract fractions
- To calculate a fraction of an amount
- To solve problems involving fractions
- To understand the link between fractions and decimals

French

We will learn:

- To use colours to describe hair and eyes
- To describe a person's personality

PSHE and RSHE

We will learn:

- about keeping the body clean, how to eat a healthy diet and about the changing adolescent body.

Physical Education

We will learn:

- about the benefits of completing yoga practice, thinking about our minds, bodies and breathing.

School of Sanctuary

We will learn how migration and colonialism has influenced and shaped modern-day Britain.

Optional Activities:

Maths:

- Times tables up to 12 x 12. Keep using the timestable rockstars website to improve your scores!
- Regular practice of addition and subtraction calculations
- Learn / practice telling the time!

English:

- Create your own graphic novel book to re-tell the story of Beowulf, or another Norse myth.

Topic:

- Visit a location in East Anglia that has evidence of Roman, Anglo-Saxon or Viking history and document your trip.

