

empire

(a large number of countries rules by one monarch or state)

invasion

(the act of invading or going into another's country, often using force)

triumph/ triumphant

(to achieve victory or to be successful)

conquer/conqueror

(to overcome and take control using force.)

mosaic

(a picture created using small pieces of tile, glass or stone)

forum

(a public square or market place)

emperor

(a sovereign ruler of an empire)

archaeology

(the study of human history through the excavation of historical sites.)

How Roman is Britain today?

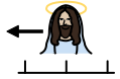

infrastructure

(the basic physical location or buildings and facilities)

villa

(a country house consisting of a farm and other buildings arranged around a courtyard)

(stands for - Before Christ.

Sometimes referred to as BCE - Before Common Era)

historical source

(anything that provides information about a period of history)

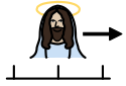

architecture

(the shape, design and construction of buildings)

amphitheatre

(an open circular or oval building with a central performance space)

(stands for - Anno Domini - after the death of Jesus)

Sometimes referred to as CE - Common Era)

artefacts

(an object made or modified by humans, typically one of historical interest)

tribes

(groups of people living together, often with a recognised leader)

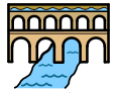

Boudicca

(Queen of the Britons and ruler of the Iceni tribe in East Anglia)

Celts

(a group of people living in Britain; particularly in the north and west)

aqueduct

(a man-made structure to help with the transportation of water)

Created in WidgitOnline.com for Avenues

Widgit Symbols © Widgit Software Ltd 2002 - 2026