

How do the people and places around us work together to create our community?

Key facts

- In Norwich there are many famous landmarks and places of interest such as Norwich Castle, Carrow Road, Elm Hill, Millennium Library, Norwich Cathedral and Cow Tower.
- In our local community we have synagogues, churches, cathedrals, gurdwaras and mosques. In our community, we have people from many faiths and from none.
- In our local area we have a wider range of public amenities – libraries, schools, parks, health centres – that support our community.
- The staff, pupils and families in our community are all connected to stories of migration - now and/or in the past. Norfolk has a long and rich history as a hub for migrants from overseas.
- We are a School of Sanctuary. Many refugees and asylum seekers have moved to Norfolk to seek sanctuary – both in recent years and historically.
- The Strangers were a group of Protestant refugees who came to Norwich fleeing religious persecution in the 16th century. They introduced to Norwich many things including canaries, the printing press and butter.
