Why do some stories remain untold, and how can we give trailblazers the recognition they deserve?

Key Vocabulary

Trailblazers	A person who is the first to do something; an innovator.
Resilience	Being able to cope with difficulties and setbacks, and bounce back afterwards
Boycott	To refuse to have dealings with a country, organisation or person as a protest.
Biography	Bio means life and comes from the Greek word 'bios'. 'Graphy' comes from the Greek work graphia translated to 'writing'.
Autobiography	Auto means self and comes from the Greek 'autos'. Autobiography translates to 'self life writing'.
Civil rights:	The rights of citizens to political and social freedom and equality.

Sculpture using armatures

Sculpture: the art of making three-dimensional representative or abstract forms

Armature: An open framework on which a sculpture is moulded with clay.

Important people

Mary Seacole	Mary Seacole was a Jamaican-born nurse who helped soldiers during the Crimean War. Born in 1805, she travelled to Crimea to care for wounded British troops. She set up the "British Hotel" to provide food and medicine. Mary was brave, kind, and determined to make a difference.
Ella Fitzgerald	Ella Fitzgerald was an American jazz singer known as the "First Lady of Song". Born in 1917, she had a powerful, beautiful voice and excellent scat singing skills. She won many awards and recorded popular songs, inspiring musicians around the world with her talent and determination throughout her long career.
Katherine Johnson	Katherine Johnson was an American mathematician who worked for NASA. Born in 1918, she used her brilliant maths skills to calculate flight paths for space missions. Her work helped astronauts travel safely to space and the Moon. She showed determination and inspired future scientists.

Yayoi Kusama is a Japanese artist, known for her bright, bold colour and design choices, all of which feature polka dots.

Dots Obsession; Pumpkin: Ascension of Polka Dots

