

The Broads

(An area of interconnected rivers and lakes found in Norfolk and Suffolk)

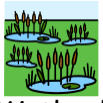

marshland

Grazing marshland

(An area of grassland that is prone to flooding which is grazed upon by animals)

Wetland

(Land consisting of marshes and swamps)

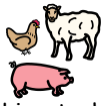

Coastline

(The area of land around a country that meets the sea)

Region

(An area of land within a country)

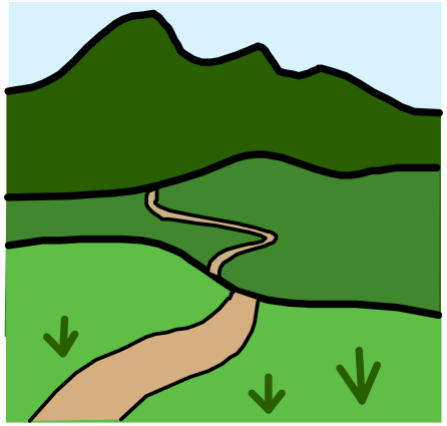

Livestock

(Animals that are kept for farming such as cows, sheep and chickens)

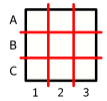

Habitat

(The natural home or environment for an animal or plant)

Landscapes

Coordinates

(A grid system to help find specific locations on a map)

Tourism

(People travelling for fun and new experiences)

River

(A natural, flowing piece of water)

Tributary

(A river or stream flowing into a larger river or lake)

Woodland

(An area of land covered by trees)

Peat

(A brown substance caused by the decomposition of plant material)

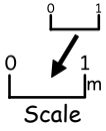

Compass

(A tool used to determine the direction of magnetic north)

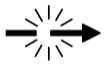

Town

(A built up area with a defined boundary)

Scale

(The relationship between distance on a map and the distance on the ground)

Impact

(The effect or influence of one thing on another)

Biome

(A large, naturally occurring community of plants and animals)

Navigate

(Planning and directing a route to a specific location)

Created in WidgitOnline.com for Avenues

Widgit Symbols © Widgit Software Ltd 2002 - 2026